Local Boy Elected . . .

Clarence "Norm" Morrison, owner of Norm's Garage here in Sierra Madre, was elected a director on the State Board of the Independent Garage Owners of California at the recent State Convention of I.G.O. held at the Disneyland Hotel in Anaheim.

Norm, who was born right here in Sierra Madre, has been president of his local unit of I.G.O. for the past year and was recently re-elected for a second year. He has been active in state affairs for some time and is at present on the Radio Advertising committee and the ways and means committee.

Norm's Garage was started by Norm's father when Norm was a boy. He worked with his father and then took over the business when the senior Mr. Morrison passed away. In 1940 he closed the garage to work for the government; but returned in 1952 and has been there ever since.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day was first officially observed on May 30 in 1868, on the order of Gen. John A. Logan, Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. Since that time it has become a special commemoration for the valiant men and women who have served this nation in its far too many wars. Especially those who gave all any human can, their lives.

These men and women have been honored by official ceremonies and citations. They have been honored in the hearts of those who knew and loved them. They stand honored before their Creator for having served their fellow men to the best of their ability.

Perhaps this Memorial Day especially we can call to mind the fact that those we honor were not all American born. Not all were white. Not all were of our individual religious faith. Some of them had no formal faith at all. Some were wealthy, some poor. Some had been unselfish and devoted, some had not.

Whoever they were, whatever they were, they stand as a silent reminder that man's inhumanity to man touches us all, no matter where we are or what we have been. Death, destruction, greed, stupidity, passion, insane ambition cut a wide swath . . . far wider than any race, any creed, any national boundary.

Those who have died in war remind us that we must learn to live in peace.

Volunteers Keep In Good Shape

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department under the direction of Fire Chief Charles E. Brown spent drill time last Friday night at the end of Sturtevant Drive and on Alta Vista Drive. The men and equipment were used in a simulated brush fire. These preplanning type of drills are used to acquaint the men so if the emergency does occur the men will have an idea how to combat it.

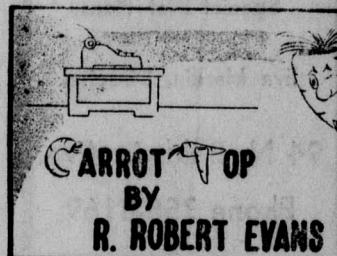

During the business meeting a film on nozzles and the various uses under actual fire conditions was shown and proved very interesting to the members present.

Plans for the next drill include a tanker crew from the United States Forestry Service and the men of the local department to hold a

TWO LEGALLY PARKED vehicles were damaged when the hydraulic brakes failed on a City Refuse Service truck and rolled into a '59 Ford Ranch Wagon, owned by David Brewer of Pasadena; damaged the left front fender, causing the car to jump back on the second car, damaging the left front door, springing the frame to the extent that the driver was unable to use the manual gear shift. Second car was owned by Mrs. Sarah Katherine Napier of Arcadia. Accident occurred on east side of South Baldwin Avenue at 2:51 p.m., Friday, May 24.

This is the week that we honor those that have gone before us. Those, who having left their mark in the sands of time and the formation of our great universe, but who have been called to do a work far more important than those that have been left behind.

We pay special tribute to those who gave their lives in the great wars that you and I may live the life that we are now enjoying. To our forefathers, and the planners of our country, we bow in a moment of silent prayer, asking only that we may contribute so much in the small amount of time allotted us.

A short note on "letters to the editor". It always has been, and will be defended to the best of my ability, as long as I am editor of this paper that: "all persons, regardless of race, creed, color, religion or politics, who have something to say, will have the right to express themselves in the columns of this newspaper, as long as they conform to the libel laws, no profanity, nor defamation of character."

Whether the person or persons agree with me or disagree is of no consequence, if I can dish it out, certainly one of this caliber should be able to "take it." Maybe not always gracefully, but as I have said before in this column . . . "It gets too hot in the kitchen . . . better get out." And I do mean just that.

Here's a little thought I ran across this past week, that sure carries a load of thinking . . . "If everyone swept in front of his own house, the whole world would be a clean place." How true, How true!

"I was having a conversation the other day with a retired Marine Sgt., and he was telling me the following story about the Navy (these are two branches of the service that really appreciate what the other does) anyway, it seems a Navy Recruit lost his rifle on the firing range. When told he would have to pay for it, he protested. "Suppose I was driving a jeep and a somebody stole it, would I have to pay for that, too? He was informed that he would have to pay.

"Now," said the recruit, "I know why the captain always goes down with his ship."

If you are out on the highway traveling this Memorial Day, do drive carefully, and while driving and watching your speedometer you can sing this song:

At 45 miles per hour you sing:

"Highways are Happy

The reason for the joint drill is that both groups have a responsibility for the brush north of the city.

A series of competitive drills between the two crews will be started in the near future. The crews will compete against each other and the stop watch. The team that wins the most points at the end of the series will have a feed at the expense of the losers. These contests between teams makes for some exciting drills.

made by management of the First Western that the closing was necessary, due to heavy truck travel, and increased liability, and further that all parties were notified of the closure excepting the management of the Royal Drug Store.

Although, Sam Perloff, owner of Royal Drug realized that the property was owned by the First Western Bank, and that this closure could be possible, he and others had pleaded with the bank personnel that "for the good of all" it certainly would be a "good neighbor policy" to allow the parking convenience to remain.

Aware of the loss that would occur with the closure, the wheels of survival were put into action. Within a 50-hour period from closure, easements were obtained, construction crews moved in, and a new, smooth access was completed by Friday evening to the affected area.

Information has it that on June 1, Dicksons Market will cease to deliver groceries to its customers, and soon new management will be considered. On or about June 5, the Sierra Cycle Shop will be removed from the City of Sierra Madre and take up business relations in Brea . . . neither of these incidents are the results of the controversy, but are set down here to keep the records straight.

The wounds of the battle were deep for the little City of Sierra Madre. The vivid scars will remain for years to come. Many observers of the "caper" feel that with consideration and just a little time, it would not have been necessary to "draw and quarter" each other.

RUMOR has it that ducats for the annual Sierra Madre Day at Dodger Stadium are going like Keweenaw. Bobby Bragan's Milwaukee Braves will be in town for the June 30 matinee with the Dodgers.

BRAGAN has calmed down a bit from his managerial antics of a few years back. He's not likely to walk out to the umpire with an umbrella should the day be overcast, or stroll around the diamond sipping orange juice. Bombastic Bobby used to be worth the price of admission alone when he was bossing the Hollywood Stars.

JUST FOR A REFRESHER tickets can be picked up at the Sierra Madre City Hall for $2.50 each, with a buck and a quarter for transportation should you care to travel the easy way.

BY THE WAY, the pastebards are just about the best in O'Malley's Alley. Section 1 and 2 directly behind home plate. If Sandy Koufax and Warren Spahn happen to be hurling you can see what a real curve ball looks like.

UNDERSTAND "Fireball" Jim Abernethy is already massaging the old soup bone for his pitching stint. Our Vice Mayor will toss out the first ball.

THE DODGER'S recent hot streak has obviously taken Walter Alston off the hot seat . . . but is it temporary? Feeling still persists that should the Dodgers (and why can't we call them, fondly speaking, the Bums?) go into any sort of a tailspin that big Walt will be seeking other employment.

ON BO BELINSKY . . . Personally this reporter feels that nocturnal Bo is a potentially great hurler. Think back about two or three years. The wolves were really after Drysdale and Koufax. "Get rid of the bums" (not so fondly) echoed through the stands. Now they are the premier moundmen in the league.

Admittedly the carefree hurler is mystifying at times. His record so far this year is not good. Still he's got the stuff (and I don't mean Mamie Van Doren) to be one of the best.

DETROIT'S TIGERS open a three games series with the Angels today followed by the Baltimore Orioles. The Tigers appear to have turned into pussy cats. They can't hit, field or pitch.

THE ANGELS will have to put together a hot streak to get back into the American League race. In fact, it will take improvement for the Rigneymen to even threaten for a first division berth. Old Hankus fingered the "halos" to cop the A.L. bunting however, and isn't giving up quite yet.

SATURDAY'S RICH CALIFORNIA, the $100,000 classic slated for Hollywood's separation center, should be a lock for the brilliant Crozier, IF the Hooper standard-bearer is in shape. Doc Jockey could be a good sleeper.

The Californian is the race in which back in 1956, Willie Shoemaker fell asleep aboard Swaps as the Kentucky Derby winner gunned for his second straight victory in the event. Shoe eased his mount nearing the wire and Milo Valenzuela gunned Portehouse across the finish line in front. It isn't often you can find a spot to criticize Willie the Shoe.

DID YOU KNOW that the 10 pin is the most common "leave" in bowling and that the head pin is missed about half the time?

PASADENA CITY COLLEGE closed out one of the finest spring sports slates in the history of the school, winning conference championships in four out of six sports.

The Lancers annexed titles in baseball, gymnastics, swimming and tennis. Jerry Todd's gym lads were unbeaten and nabbed the National AAU title to boot.

SPORTSWRITERS VERSUS BROADCASTERS baseball is on tap Saturday night as a prelude to the Angel-Oriole fracas. The "mouths" must be favored with the likes of Buddy Blattner, Tom Harmon and Elroy Hirsch in the starting lineup.

The PLAZA Shop Talk

By Sewall Clark

HAVE YOU ever been made happy by something so simple that it seems almost too trivial to mention?

Could be almost anything, but this time it's the new sign at the Plaza Shop; a single board with a few letters on it. If you had told me in my "sophisticated" days that I could enjoy a simple thing like this so much I would have thought you needed a doctor.

YOU MAY remember a recent "Shop Talk" telling of our rough time in trying to find someone who, instead of talking about it, would actually do it — paint the sign, that is.

A couple of artists here in town read the column and asked: "Why not us?"

AT FIRST I thought they were kidding. They are Frank Bowers and wife, Vicki, who do a lot of murals for restaurants and other business places; even homes. I had assumed they would be too busy.

So once again I've learned: it's the busy people who get things done. TRUDIE, I think, has ALWAYS known this. That's why the Plaza Shop keeps getting new things all the time, in boxes that have to be unpacked, hangers to be wrestled, bills to be figured, tags to be marked.

TROUBLE IS, she keeps doing special favors for people, which brings in more boxes to be opened, more hangers to be never mind. I'll meet you in the patio. Bring your own lunch.

MRS. RUSSELL CLARKSON HAND
... Nee Miss Jean Sylvia Osti

Miss Jean Sylvia Osti Married To Mr. Russell Clarkson Hand

Miss Jean Sylvia Osti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osti Sr., of 271 N. Grove St., was married to Mr. Russell Clarkson Hand, son of Mrs. Catherine R. Hand and the late Mr. James Alexander Hand of 991 Del Rey Ave., Pasadena, in the Sierra Madre Bethany Church, Saturday, May 25, at 8 p.m. with Dr. Robert W. Schaper officiating clergy.

Three hundred and fifty people, including members of the family, guests and friends, witnessed the ceremony as the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father to meet her future husband.

She was lovely in a full length bridal gown, designed with a close fitting bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a full skirt panned in lace and net. The entire gown was made over satin.

Her headdress was a fingertip silk illusion veil with a forward arrangement of silk petals and net centered with tiny pearls. She wore wrist length gloves and carried a bouquet of carnation tufts, cascaded with stephanotis and white satin ribbon, centered with a hand-some, white removable orchid which she wore on her going-away costume.

Her wedding gown and veil were sent to her by her cousin, Anna Rafreider, from Bolzano, Italy, near Milan. Jean and her cousin have never seen each other.

Jean's only adornment of jewelry was a three-tiered gold chain necklace that was given to her mother by her father when they were married in Trentino, Austria, 49 years ago last April.

Her attendants were gowned in identically colored costumes and carried the same designed bouquets. Matron of honor was Mrs. Daniel G. Osti and bridesmaids were Mrs. Hoskins (Rhuanne) Foster, Miss Diane Brooks and Miss Eleanor Hand. Each attendant wore street length gowns of ice green taffeta designed with full skirts and overskirts of white silk organza, sleeveless, and scooped necklines, accessorized with short white gloves and pumps.

Their headdresses were short white silk net illusion veils secured by a taffeta rose of ice green. They carried crescent bouquets of yellow and white carnations centered with small agapanthus blossoms.

Little Kerri Lynn Osti, niece of the bride, was flower girl dressed in a yellow frock and carried a basket of yellow rose petals and sweetpeas.

Roger LeRoy Thornton, a friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Junior ushers were Peter Hogan, Brian Fraser and Jeffrey Garo. Daniel Osti was head usher, assisted by Rand Kuhl, Richard Johnson and Ronald Guyer.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece suit of gray-green, embroidered in a small white design, a small white hat, white gloves and orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a pink crepe sheath with panels, matching pumps, hat and gloves and wore an orchid corsage.

Mr. Robert Stevens was soloist.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the Bethany Church. Guests were served a delicious punch and wedding cake. Reception assistants were Mrs. Doris Nighswanger, Miss Suzanne Edgmon, Miss Betty Maule, Miss Dayna Philp and Miss Suzanne Dobrel, all friends of the new Mrs. Hand.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Louise E. Sulanke who

4-SIERRA MADRE NEWS Thursday, May 30, 1963

This is Memorial Day and we hope you have your flag waving high! While this is a time of memories, it is more a time to look ahead to the day when there will be no more losses in war to commemorate. We hope the time will soon be at hand when our children will think of Memorial Day as an historical reminder of the long past, and celebrate only the patriotic feeling that it engenders. Pride in our country are more than enough reason to display our flag. It is a visible sign of our patriotism and privilege reserved for only a small fortunate portion of the world's peoples. Let's take advantage of this opportunity to stand somewhat taller. The least we can do is to remember with gratitude those who died to save our freedom. The most we can do is to extend ourselves in every possible way to safeguard that freedom, and to guarantee that same freedom to our children.

Las Campaneras Meets
Color and what it can do for your home is the subject for the June meeting of Las Campaneras of Upper Hastings Ranch, to be held at a local restaurant, June Hunt, program chairman, will introduce Mrs. Eshback, interior decorator. President Betty Knudson will conduct the business meeting, which includes the installation of the new officers for 1963-64. Incoming president is Jeanne Paxson, and Emily Morzov, Marty Newton, and Ethel Mayhew complete the elected board. New members will be welcomed and asked to give a brief autobiography. They are Audrey McKelvey, Marilyn O'Donnell, Marjorie Brown, Beverly Farling, Yvette Gould, and Darlene Erbach. Another feature of the day will be the presentation of corsages to those with perfect attendance.

This is the first meeting that June Hunt will miss this year, and with good reason. She, her husband Robert, and the family are moving on the day of the meeting to their new home at 811 Santa Anita Ave., in San Marino.

Campfire Cookout

Ni Na Ha Jo Campfire Girls in the 4th grade at Don Benito recently spent an overnight at Camp Chiquito in Altadena. Accompanied by leader Ann Weger, who was assisted by Florence Ross, the girls enjoyed cookouts and campfires, complete with ghost stories. Those attending were Denise Cox, Marge Evans, Charlene Goldman, Susan Kaericher, Lise Kramer, Betsy Leif, Nancy Ross, Lark Weger, Wendy Wilson, and Jodi Thibaut. Mrs. Ross, who will be next year's leader, also took younger daughter Susie along to share in the fun.

Convention Time

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards have returned from a week in San Francisco where they attended the 17th annual convention of the Kex National Conference, which was sponsored by the Calloway Mill Company. Over 250 people from the entire United States and Canada were at this very successful affair. Norma and Frank flew both ways, and enjoyed their stay at the Mark Hopkins Hotel. Their crowded schedule included dinners, parties, and dances, combining business and pleasure very nicely. The Edwards are planning a trip to Hawaii in August, and their 15 year old son, Jim will accompany them at that time.

Polynesian Paradise

For those of us not planning an island trip this year, we have a suggestion for the next best thing. The East Pasadena-Sierra Madre Republican Women's Club is planning the most unique dinner-dance of the season, to be held at the Tikis. This is not a regular restaurant, but is only available to parties and is the nearest thing to an island paradise without leaving the mainland. Dinner will be served in a jungle setting, with a waterfall, active volcano, and a mist-enshrouded lagoon adding to the atmosphere. Torches will light the scene, and the costume for the night will be muumuu and sarongs. The big event will be on June 21 with dinner being served from 7 until 9. The menu includes a fish course, pit barbecued beef, and features an out-rigger canoe filled with fresh fruit. A fabulous floor-show and dancing until 1 a.m. completes the evening. Anyone desiring tickets or information for this night in a Polynesian paradise may call Jane Morris at EL 5-6829. Heading the committee are Marilyn Pursely, chairman; Jane Morris, tickets and reservations; Jane Howell and Emily Bridges, posters, and Gloria Murison, publicity.

YMCA New Building Fund

The Foothill Branch of the YMCA gave a pancake breakfast to raise money for their new building fund. Malcolm Murison was general chairman for the well-attended event, and Paul Robertson was chairman of the management committee. Music and entertainment, which was planned by Dave Hooker, included a trio from the Maestros, Paul Wilke, Chuck Lowe, and Paul Gero. Bob Jugan busily decorated the youngsters with Indian war paint. Other hard-working cooks and helpers were Allen Tingney, Walt Klimnik, Rev. Tom Williams, Hod Alder, Earl Favor, John Kaufman, Bill Sandberg, Jack Washburn, Bruce Badger, Ralph Cain, Bill Burkholder, and Y secretaries Pete Woll, Russ Kohl and Bruce Knox. Six hundred boys acted as door-to-door salesmen, and took tickets and worked as a clean-up committee as well. Many friends and neighbors supported this excellent group. Among the families of Keith Stiles, Stewart Zuck, Jarrett Brunson, John Erbach, Paul Goldsmith, William Mangham, Harry Gruwell, Richard Cannon, Renolds Cairncross, Jim Fay, Walter Elsaesser, George Fasching, Al Bergh, Chuck Harrison and Dan Wells.

Happy Birthdays

Some of the stars (?) of the recent Field Elementary School Parent Show trekked to Altadena for a performance of Burbank School's presentation of "Funsomoke" directed by Betty Gravel. (She directed the Field show.) Several of our local group participated in the production, including Bill and Barbara Pankey, David Bruce, and Maggie Barnard. Following the show, Paul and Norma Nurches served a mid-night supper to Cass and Pete Woodworth, Dick and Evelyn Cannon, Brit and Jan Brittell, Bob and Jeri Fey, Ray and Florence Bowers, and Neal and Marge Rowley. A half-and-half cake, inscribed "Happy Birthdays" was a surprise honoring the wedding anniversary of the Woodworths, and the birthday of Evelyn Cannon. An impromptu musicale, including astonishing offerings of all types, was provided by the talented guests!!!

Terzian on Americanism

Carl Terzian, professor of Political Science at Woodbury College, is always a vital and interesting speaker. Appearing at a meeting Wednesday night held in the Vasa Temple. Mr. Terzian covered a wide field of topics based on Americanism. He encouraged everyone to learn and understand free enterprise and its advantages. Feeling that the great challenge we face is to sell America to Americans, he pointed out that in two months women spend as much on clothes as we spend to sell America in 111 other countries. According to Mr. Terzian, socialism is a greater danger than Communism, since this consists of concentrating on defense as opposed to strength within our own country. He touched on the growing crime rate, divorce, and the spread of pornographic literature, and stated that the courts need more power in order to bring convictions. He cited the prevalence of classroom cheating and cheap movies as being a factor in juvenile problems. In the audience we saw Ross Blakely, Stewart and Joyce Zuck, John and Darlene Erbach, Dick Morse, Barry Cox, Mary Hughes, Henry and Jean Nash, Janice and Frank Crowhurst, Fern Neminski, Wanhada Dickson, Dixie DuBois, Elaine and Buzz DeWees, Dick and Betty Wagner, Mary and Fritz Stradling, Jean and Jim Cross, Robbie and Al Pruitt, Ross and Betty Blakely, Joyce Wenger, and George Ross.

Weekend Trip

Nat and Eleanor Wood, accompanied by friends

Roger and Marian Johnson of Arcadia, spent a healthful long weekend at Ocean House, a beautiful resort in San Diego. They golfed at Torrey Pines and enjoyed lunch at the new inn. They also went sailing on Mission Bay.

This is Marge talking; I've heard of people with rocks in their heads. We've taken great pains to get rid of the rocks in our yard. The local landscape people sell rocks to put back in our yard!! My unpredictable co-writer, Emily, accompanied by husband, Bill, and their four sons took off to the desert this weekend to gather their own personalized rocks!! If the rattle snakes and tarantulas (which I understand our deserts are rife with) don't get them, she'll be back next week. With any luck at all, the rocks they gather will be too big for her to throw at me, in which case I'll still be around!! MERCY!!!!

Related readings will include these lines: "In a world of sin and sensuality hastening to a greater development of power, it is wise earnestly to consider whether it is the human mind or the divine Mind which is influencing one." "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 821.

Ascension Tidings

The Episcopal Young Churchmen's volleyball tournament finals will be held Saturday, June 1, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Church of the Ascension.

Hosts for the visiting teams will be the E.Y.C. of Ascension Parish under the combined leadership of Alan Hartley, president, and the Rev. James H. Miller, advisor for the group.

The Missionary District meeting of the E.Y.C. will be held at 5 p.m. as announced by District president, Roger Keita, also a member of Ascension Parish. The meeting will close at 6 p.m. to be followed immediately by a spaghetti dinner in the Parish House.

Evening prayer at 7 o'clock will follow the dinner. A social hour and dance will follow the day's activities. The dance, held in the Parish House, will end at 10 p.m.

The annual Whitsunday Breakfast, sponsored and served by the Women of the Church, honoring the recently confirmed members of the Parish who will make their first Holy Communion on that day, will be held in the Parish House Sunday, June 2.

Breakfast will be served immediately following the 7:30 a.m. Mass; service to continue until 10:30 a.m. Tickets for the breakfast will be 75 cents per person. The Confirmation class will be the guests of the Parish. The annual Rummage Sale, held by the Women of the Church, is scheduled for Saturday, June 29, and will be held for one day only this year.

Donations for the sale are needed. Nearly every kind of saleable articles will be acceptable, except large pieces of furniture. Mrs. Richard Robison, ways and means chairman, is in charge.

Bethany Church Notes

The music department at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will present "Moments of Meditation" in commemoration of the coming of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost almost 2000 years ago. Mr. Doug Coe, music director and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schultz have been responsible for the planning and preparation of the program.

The service will consist of music by the Chancel Choir with selected ensembles accompanied by Marilyn Richter at the organ. Selected readings will be interspersed to give a sense of continuity to the entire worship time. Pentecost Sunday is significant event in the Christian calendar and the desire of the music department is to emphasize this significance rather than any human aspect which may be evident. A communion service will also be held with Pastor Schaper bringing the meditation.

Dr. Robert N. Schaper, will bring the fifth in the series of sermons on the Book of Ephesians. His title is "The Mystery of the Ages" taken from the third chapter. The first four messages have proved to be a real help and blessing to many people and the public and friends of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the service which begins at 11. The evening service commences at 7 p.m.

On Wednesday, June 5, Dr. Walter L. Wilson, internationally known author and preacher will be speaking to the congregation at the mid-week service of prayer and Bible study. Dr. Wilson, from Kansas City, was Dr. Schaper's pastor during his youthful years and is no stranger to the pulpit at Bethany, having preached during a week of meetings several years ago. That same evening, Dr. Schaper will preach at the First Baptist Church of San Pedro where the Rev. Lin Palin is pastor. Mr. Palin was active in the life of Bethany Church several years ago, prior to assuming the pastorate at San Pedro.

At the Pioneer Girls mother-daughter banquet last Tuesday evening, it was revealed that two of the groups would be going on "cook-outs."

The Colonist group, led by Mrs. Pollock and Mrs. Goddard and Miss Goddard will camp overnight at the Juday Meadows campsite near Lake Hughes on Friday, May 31. The 3rd and 4th grade Pilgrim group led by Mrs. Roese, Mrs. Hebling and Mrs. Schoepke will have their cook-out on June 4.

Jewish Temple Plans New Center

Frank Ackerman, trade magazine publisher, was re-elected president of the Foothill Jewish Temple-Center last Monday.

Other officers include: vice presidents, Milton Honowitz, William Glesby, Lou Lasser and Frances Chosen; executive and recording secretary, Sally Roane; corresponding secretary, Molly Cohen; treasurer, Robert Sencer; comptroller, Norman Shulman, and Parliamentarian, Mark Schaefer.

The Foothill Temple-Center has put into plan check the architectural details for the construction of a new Temple-Center.

Holy Communion

A class of five youths will be received into membership Sunday, June 2, at the 10:30 a.m. service in Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 7 W. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia. Confirming their vows at the altar will be Nancy Dane, Douglas Erickson and Bruce Holst of Sierra Madre. The young people also will receive Holy Communion.

Pentecost Observed At Faith Lutheran

The third major festival of the Christian Church, the Festival of Pentecost, will be observed on Sunday at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. In the 10:30 worship service, the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak on the theme, "The Spirit Gave Them Utterance."

The sermon message will consider the Apostles' Spirit-given ability to present the Gospel of Christ in various languages on the first Christian Pentecost. It will also concern the matter of speaking in tongues, the subject of "Glossolalia," which currently is receiving emphasis and publicity in some of the churches of Christendom.

In the 9:15 Sunday school session, the Biblical account of "The First Pentecost" will be presented to the pupils. The Adult Bible Class, meeting in the sanctuary, will continue the study of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles, under the direction of Dr. Walter A. Schroeder. At 7:30 on Monday evening, the Voters' Assembly will convene to evaluate reports, to hear recommendations and to transact the business matters of the parish.

On Thursday afternoon at 4, the newly-elected officers of the Walther League will meet to organize into the executive board. These are: Ronald Woltman, president; Steven Silvera, vice president; Sandra Wodrich, secretary; Tracy Harbur, treasurer; Rodney Burke, Christian Growth chairman, and Stephanie Robbins, sergeant-at-arms.

Marriage Series Concludes At

The last in a series of discussions on Christian marriage will be held in the college age group of the Congregational Church this Sunday. Rev. George W. Lindsay will speak on "The Impediments to True Marriage."

The group meets at the parsonage, 101 W. Bonita, on Sunday evenings, at 8 o'clock. College-age young people, and the newly-wed are invited to participate.

Women's Society Meets Tuesday

The Women's Missionary Society of Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, June 4 at 9:30 a.m. with a work day, sewing on various projects for the natives of the nations in which various missionaries are working. After a fellowship luncheon at 12 the women will meet in McAndrew Hall for a meeting to hear from Mrs. Betty Schubert, from United World Missions.

Mrs. Schubert, who, with her husband, Paul serves the Lord in Kenia, in the Republic of Malawi, West Africa. She will be showing the 30-minute color film, "Fruit From Our Kenia Valley." The film is a graphic portrayal of pioneer missionary work, the extensive ministry and value of medical missions and the power of God to transform lives in West Africa. The Schuberts, native Californians, left everything, business and home to build for God in West Africa. All women are invited.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to the provisions of the Code of the City of Sierra Madre, Section 9625, that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre, has fixed Thursday, June 20, 1963, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. in the Council Chambers in the City Hall, 55 West Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, California, as the time and place for holding a public hearing on an application submitted by C. T. and Violet Trombley to create two parcels from property described as Portions of Lots A and B, Tract 3101, further described as 430 Foothill Avenue.
The proposal is as follows:
Parcel 1: A parcel coming under the requirements of Sec. 9420.1 of the Code of the City of Sierra Madre, and requesting a variance to reduce the area requirement from 15,000 s.f. to 9181 s.f.;

Interested persons may attend and be heard.

Editorially Speaking....

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."
Proverbs 9:10.
25:28.

Present Look!

The New Frontier unleashed its broad domestic legislative program with not only vast enthusiasm, but total confidence. It was felt that the masses of the voters would rally to the cause and make recalcitrants in Congress bow to their wishes. Opposition was, of course, expected. But, the anticipations ran in the Kennedy echelons, this would be overcome by the juggernaut. All the massive political resources and skills of the Administration were organized with the utmost care and attention to detail — the same kind of care that made Mr. Kennedy's nomination and election an actuality — in order to get the machine moving.

What has happened, after months of debate, argument, controversy, wheeling and dealing? As more and more informed commentators — including some who are personally favorable to the President and his ideas — are writing, the machine has blown a gasket. If it's moving at all, it is at a limping, one-cylinder pace.

The reason can be quickly explained in a single word, and that word is apathy. As Paul Duke of the Wall Street Journal puts it — and his view is typical — "New evidence of widespread public apathy toward President Kennedy's legislative proposals is darkening prospects for the 1963 New Frontier program. The evidence has been unearthed by lawmakers who communed with the folks back home during the 10-day Easter recess . . . With remarkable repetitiveness, House and Senate members report most voters in an aloof, couldn't-care-less frame of mind toward major measures pending in the 88th Congress." And he quotes a Democratic Congressman, who is solidly back of the President's program, as saying, "We seem to be at a plateau where people are satisfied with the status quo."

Oddly enough, the President's personal popularity, according to the polls and to what members of Congress learned talking with their constituents, remains high — much, much higher than his domestic welfare program. This has happened before — Presidents Roosevelt and Truman found themselves, at times, in the same fix. In any event, at a rough estimate, here's how things look now:

Foreign aid — a heavy cut, of about a billion dollars. The Medicare plan for providing certain medical services to everyone within the Social Security System — hardly a chance of passing.

Extensive federal aid to the public schools — no foreseeable chance.

Still tighter regulations on the pharmaceutical industry — extremely doubtful.

Further increases in the minimum wage — equally doubtful.

So the story goes. This leaves out of account the tax-cut, tax-revision program, the most ambitious of all the Administration's domestic proposals. It, too, is in profound trouble. For one thing, the new rules recently adopted by the Internal Revenue Service, even though somewhat eased after waves of angry protest, make it tougher than ever on the individual taxpayer, and particularly on the man whose income comes totally from salary and who can claim no deductions other than the very limited standard ones. And there has been an important change in the rules covering other deductions. The burden of proof is now on the taxpayer, where it used to be on the government. The keeping of records has been made more, not less, complicated. On top of all this, no one yet knows just how tough the IRS will ultimately prove to be in its audits, and this doubt and confusion hardly contribute to optimism and a go-ahead spirit on the part of the individual taxpayer.

Moreover, the proposed and possible tax cuts would mean little to the family in the average-income bracket, hardly more than the increase in the social security tax that became effective on January 1 of this year.

Finally, there is a widespread fear that tax cuts without compensating reductions in spending would be exceedingly dangerous — and administration spokesmen see no chance at all for reductions of any substance.

Administration leaders press ahead, as they must, on behalf of the program. But, to repeat, the public response in general is just plain apathy.

Not So Staid

The New England states have generally been regarded as staid places. But now New Hampshire has passed a bill authorizing the sale of sweepstakes tickets and the governor has signed it. The tickets will be sold through state-owned liquor stores and at state-controlled race tracks. The results of certain horse races will decide who wins the prizes.

Lotteries were common in the early days of this country. They were a major means of raising government revenue long before anyone had thought of such devices as the progressive income tax. But New Hampshire is the first state to turn to them in this century.

The significance is clear. Most states are desperate for revenue. They are turning more and more to new and sometimes odd sources. And the lottery — no matter what one may think of it on moral or other grounds — has one built-in virtue. The revenue it provides, through the percentage cut taken by the state, is voluntarily paid. No one has to buy a ticket. He buys only if he wants to. Thus, it falls into the same category as excise and sales taxes on liquor, tobacco and various other items. Here is the one kind of revenue source the taxpayer can escape.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

January 21, 1934
Dear Mel and Glad:

. . . the daily inspiration that is ours as we work side by side with our Russian comrades in our factory, the thought that we are actually helping to build a society that will forever end the exploitation of man by man, the thought that what we are building will be for the benefit and enjoyment of the working class, not only of Russia but the entire world, is the compensation we receive for our temporary absence from the struggle in the United States.

Mel, you know Wal and I were always strong for the Soviet Union. You know we were always ready to defend it against the lies of reactionaries . . . Here are no bosses to drive fear into the workers.

. . . In all my life, Mel, I have never seen anything so inspiring. Mel, once a fellow has seen what is possible where workers gain power, he no longer fights just for an ideal, he fights for something which is real, something tangible.

Carry on the fight for a Soviet America.

Vic and Walter Reuther sent this letter to their friends Melvin and Gladys Bishop. It is now a permanent part of the record of the Congress of the United States as well as the record of the Committee on Un-American Activities. The full context of the letter appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, August 14, 1948.

Today, Walter P. Reuther is probably the most powerful single person in America. He is president of the United Automobile Workers of America and president of the industrial union department of the combined AF of L-CIO organization.

According to J. B. Matthews in an article appearing in the September, 1955, issue of the American Mercury, "shortly after Reuther's return from the Soviet Union, he addressed a meeting of the Young People's Socialist League. After lauding the Soviet Union with enthusiasm, he declared pompously: 'We do not believe in God.'"

Donald Janson of the New York Times and Bernard Eismann of the CBS Television Network, two well known "liberals," have just written a book entitled "The Far Right." The authors devote six pages to the ominous threats of Walter and Victor Reuther against Christian conservatives.

Jansen and Eismann state in their book that in the Fall of 1961, Walter Reuther was asked by Attorney General Robert Kennedy to write a memorandum on what should be done with the conservatives and anti-communists of the United States.

The memo written by Victor Reuther primarily, but submitted in the name of both Reuthers, was released on December 19, 1961, and, according to Jansen and Eismann, copies were given to all of the members of Kennedy's staff and cabinet as well as to Senators and Congressmen friendly to the administration.

The Reuther brothers suggested five immediate steps: 1. That servicemen in our Armed Forces who are friendly to anti-communist organizations should be pointed out and censured. They referred to it as a "special problem requiring immediate and special measure."

2. That the Attorney General of the United States do away with his annual "subversive list" because the right-wing uses this to their advantage. The report suggests that "the radical right poses a far greater danger to the success of this country in its battle against international communism than does the domestic communist movement." This suicidal thought is not surprising if we recall the Reuthers' last paragraph of their infamous letter to the Bishops: "Carry on the fight for a Soviet America."

3. That Gestapo-type action be taken against conservative forces. The memo stated: "As funds are a source of power to the Radical Right, action to dam up these funds may be the quickest way to turn the tide now running in their favor." In other words, they admit that public opinion favors the anti-communist position, so, therefore, an effort must be made to shut up the anti-communist spokesmen so that they cannot not continue to inform Americans of the existing Communist threat.

4. That the Kennedy Administration should take steps to abolish some of the anti-communist organizations. There is no suggestion that the Communist Party be abolished, but, instead, that organizations on the right should be abolished. The Reuthers believe that there should be no civil liberties for the champions of conservatism — only for the left wing Socialists.

5. That J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, be reprimanded because of "exaggeration" concerning the internal communist menace. There you have it — the most powerful men in the labor movement today advising our President to take action against all anti-communists in America with a total disregard of civil liberties or civil rights.

CARROT TOP

Ways.
At 55 miles per hour — "I'm But a Stranger, Heaven Is My Home."
At 65 miles per hour — "Nearer My God, To Thee."
At 75 miles per hour — "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder, I'll Be There."
And at 85 miles per hour — "Lord, I'm Coming Home."
—CT—

Of course anytime you travel over 65 miles per hour you are eligible to start singing, "The Prisoner's Song" or better yet "I'm in the Jail House Now." Anyway, do drive carefully and give the kids a "brake," and at the same time help the older people live a little longer. Sierra Madre needs all the customers they can get, and we cannot afford to lose a single one.

Bill Murphy once said: (I don't know the man either) "There are two types of people in this world, those who are Irish and those who wish that they were."

In closing, let me quote you a little note that I found on my desk the other day when I managed to squat for a minute or two to rest my weary bones:

"Successful people are doers. But the first step toward doing is trying . . . and this is something which too many people carefully avoid." Wonder if this has anything to do with gardening? Anyway I must be avoiding something or someone, somewhere.

Course the note could have been left for Jack Kennedy, our Advertising Manager. He always carefully avoids me, not because I am successful, it is just that I keep trying for that first step . . . trying-trying and trying to get him to do as much of my work as I can, but try as I may I am still not a successful person.

Jack always says to me "Blessed are they that go around in circles, for they shall be known as the big wheels," and I always answer him "If you don't know where you are going, you're already there." See you after Memorial Day, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Memorial Day — Decoration Day. A tradition old as time. A day set aside as far back as 1866 to honor those who have fallen in the fight for freedom and the pursuit of their cause.
It started in the South to honor those who laid down their lives on the battlefields of the Civil War. They couldn't with free hearts designate their flowers for the graves of just those who were born Southern. Though their causes differed, their blood was just the same and they died just as gallantly. And so, through time the entire country adopted that one day of remembrance; of caring for those who bought us our heritage, whether they died on the field of battle or in the battle of life; on May 30 we remember them and we bow our heads.

Horse fanciers in this area will be interested to learn that Margaret Pyle's mare,
"April Night," foaled again on April 20. She has a beautiful black filly sired by "Mr. Millionaire." Almost everyone on Old House Road and the surrounding vicinity has a personal interest in "April Night." Aside from the fact that she is a champion among the Tennessee Walking Horse class, she is just a picture to watch in the corral. Mrs. Pyle had a house party last weekend at her "Tee-Pee" Ranch near Barstow to show off the new filly. She said "April Night" was so proud of herself you'd think she invented the idea.
The guests at the ranch were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watson, Mrs. Kate Fox, Mr. and Mrs. James File and their family, Mr. and Mrs.
Verne Robinson and Mr. Bill
Oakford and his daughter, Jeanie.

As long as I am speaking of horses, I may as well mention a point that is causing no end of concern and disappointment to equestrians and pedestrians in the area.

Attention, county fathers!
A while back when the county decided that we could no longer exist without a flood control dam that looks a little like Boulder, we swallowed our disappointment, and gave way to progress. After all, we did have the lovely rustic park.
More progress, and more grumbling, and then we no longer had a park; we play golf instead. That is fine.
It is a great game, and besides, there was a verbal promise made that a small bridge trail would be kept for those who bought property up here for just the reason of being able to ride. A horse really doesn't take a lot of room to ride along, and they certainly are not destructive by nature. Everyone seemed to be pretty well satisfied. It wasn't the best, but at least it was a friendly compromise. The country had heart. Suddenly the heart has turned to stone, or been lost. Now, there is a fence. NO TRES-PASSING! Why? Have they forgotten our horses and our dogs, and our PEOPLE?
Why?

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Asher of Edgely Lane are back in town after a two-week trip that combined both business and pleasure. They started out in San Francisco and ended up visiting with Mrs. Asher's mother in Denver, and then on to St. Paul, Minnesota, before returning home.

Miss Gloria Gutierrez of Fairpoint is beginning to realize that the wedding bells will be ringing very soon for her and her intended, Mr. John Delaney.
She was feted at a miscellaneous bridal shower and luncheon last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. A. J. Huber in her Old House Road home. Co-hosting with Mrs. Huber was Gloria's aunt, Mrs. Fred Ascencio.
Both the hostesses were ably assisted by their daughters, Janet, Joan and Karen Huber, and Teresa and Kathleen Ascencio.

In addition to the honoree, the guests invited were Mrs. Harold Levenson and her daughter, Linda; Mrs.
L. M. Lloreda, Mrs. J. A.
Lloreda, Mrs. T. A. Gutier-rez and her daughter, Barbara; Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, Mrs. R. G. Jacobs, Mrs.
H. W. Passage, Mrs. T. H.
McFadden and her daughter, Sally; Mrs. J. F. Mc-Kenna, Mrs. G. H. Fahey,
Mrs. Richard R. Clarke, Mrs.
A. Roberts, Mrs. E. Box, Mrs.
Ernest Maurin, Mrs. Paul
Phillips, Mrs. B. W. Clausen and Kit, Mrs. A. R. Delaney, mother of the intended; Mrs.
J. Arturo Gutierrez, mother of the bride, and three of her sisters, Guillermina, Elena and Gudelia. The theme of the decorations was built around a covey of white doves.

Got so excited hearing about the plans that Mr.
and Mrs. Floyd T. Pedersen have for their new home.
They recently purchased and moved into the old "Red Robin Farm" on Old House Road. People who live up this way know and love that old place with all of its charm of a yesteryear. The Pedersens are going to take their time and restore it as authentically as will be practical with modern conveniences. They have started to paint the exterior white which comes as a refreshing change. They will retain the name of the farm. One change will be the dividing of the land. They will soon have a one-half acre lot in the back for sale. The fact that Mr. Pedersen is a painting contractor will add a good deal to the redecorating plans.

They have three darling daughters who already have become beloved in the neighborhood. They are Christine, who is 10, Vicki, who is 9, and Sharon, who is 7.

Alverno Names First Yearbook The Troubadour

Members of Alverno's Press Club chose the first yearbook staff by a general vote. The faculty and staff selected the name "The Troubadour" as the title of the first and future yearbooks.

The members of the staff are Karen Longpre, Liberta Toscano, co-editors; Mary Glasscock, layout editor; Jneil Ludwick, copy editor; Cindy Arko, art editor; Chris Roman, photograph editor; Sheila Smith, business manager. Other members are Kathy Johnston, Kathy Gibson, Marcy Merrel, Vivian Wakipi, Marcia Kelly, Sandy Rook, Ann Lorenzen and Lucy Marino.

The selection of "The Troubadour" climaxed a week-long contest in which the students submitted suggestions for a name of the yearbook. The winning entry was placed by Karen Longpre.

POPULAR SCIENCE MAGAZINE presents the NEW

Encyclopedia of Popular Science for Young People and service carpeting." He is the Western Division Sales Manager for an eastern carpet mill, his territory covering the thirteen western states. In his capacity, he contacts comparatively few females, most of whom he finds not "frustrated" but "charming and intelligent." Perhaps that is because he is a gentleman who acts and speaks like one.

As for my being a Conservative, as you sneeringly "understand" — remember that a person's politics and religion are his own business and name-calling along either line is offensive and in extremely poor taste.

I mailed my first Letter to the Editor on a Monday, hoping it would give you time to ponder my comments and subsequently dispose of me with a few well chosen words. . . . for I honestly believe that somewhere down in any small town newspaper publisher's heart is the tiny flame of true militant journalism.

And I do realize that the pressures and costs of putting out a weekly newspaper are tremendous. And all these people (like me) keep buffering you around and poking and complaining. I'm really just asking that you please try to give us more comprehensive, livelier news coverage. The very air — the sweet, fresh mountain air of Sierra Madre — is abundant with NEWS.

There's so much going on, if only you would see. —Mrs. William M. Preston P.S. Sorry I can't retype this for you. I must this week write the "Pink Clarion" for the Volunteer Service League of White Memorial Medical Center, and bat out copy for the Voyagers at Trinity Pres.

Editor's Note: Sincerely, what makes you think you are qualified to sit on a judicial bench? I would hardly expect you to use the word DEAR, this is an expression of politeness, and I know that I am not loved by you, maybe costly, but by being a STOOP and dropping that dime you are joining a weekly average of 789 other stoops. Helen, in short, "Don't judge, less ye be judged."

Had you completely read that which you paid for, I am sure your questions would be answered. My feelings are that "Frustration" is the word, and as far as myself and the Sierra Madre News is concerned our expenditures with "hometown merchants" will reach a figure close to $25,000 for the year plus an annual payroll of $35,000. As far as the First Western Bank is concerned, Mr. Frank Dolph, manager has the word on this and I am sure if he wishes to exploit it I will be willing to do so.

Living in the past as you indicate, I wonder how complete the writing for the "Pink Clarion" or the "Voyager" could be. I am sure you have 100 percent reader satisfaction.

This particular letter, which really has no constructive thinking, strikes me as one whereby you wish to set up a continuation of correspondence. Your admittances at the close of your letter satisfies me that you have had your little say, and that you wish to eliminate name calling, therefore let me say congratulations for such a fine husband and your ability beyond reproach. I am extremely happy that one such as you have noticed little 'ol me. Keep dropping in the dimes Helen, one of these days we will get around to a good story about you and all will be forgiven. You can now consider yourself disposed of.

Dear Editor: May I thank you for printing the letter from the Chamber of Commerce to the Southern Counties Gas Company protesting the planned removal of their office from Sierra Madre. The letter, I feel, clearly stated the sentiment of the business people of this city, who make up the membership of the Chamber of Commerce, in their desire to give the citizens here the best possible service and accommodation in the payment of their gas bills and in other matters of doing business with the gas company. We feel that this can be done best only by maintenance of an office by the gas company in Sierra Madre.

This letter of protest was sent to the City Council here, was read to the Council, together with a letter addressed to the Council urging them to support our stand. The Council took no action. Now, as President of the Chamber of Commerce and as a business man, citizen and home owner here, I should like to point out to you and to the people of Sierra Madre that there appears to be a vast difference between the thinking of the Chamber of Commerce and that of the City Council.

I was personally asked at the Council meeting if my stand was not motivated by a matter of pride, which leads me to ask this question: since when is it any form of crime for the Chamber of Commerce of any city to have pride in the maintenance of good, well kept offices, services for its people and the best possible accommodations for incoming residents? And here's another question: would there be anything wrong in the City Council of a city joining with its Chamber of Commerce in a similar motivation of pride?

And now I have still another question: by what line of reasoning should the City Council be more concerned with a chance for the gas company to save money than have that money paid in county taxes, city taxes, rent to a Sierra Madre property owner and salary to a Sierra Madre employee, particularly when that saving results in denying the city a well-appointed, attractive office where the best possible accommodation of business transaction can be given?

Yes, the Chamber of Commerce is guilty of having pride in what Sierra Madre looks like, its offices, its accommodation to the residents here. I'm afraid that in the chamber will never change. And now, here's another question? Doesn't the appearance of the almost knee-high weeds in front of two city owned parking lots do anything to the pride of the City Councilmen? My suggestion is that by our all pulling together, working together, toward a more beautiful, better city in which to live, shop and do business, that we can indeed all be justified in having still greater pride in our city.

—JOHN H. CURTIS, President Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce
